

Sheriff Michael Lewis Wicomico County, Maryland

Sheriff Lewis retired as a Sergeant with the Maryland State Police, Pro-Active Criminal Enforcement Team (PACE) after twenty-two years of loyal and dedicated service. In addition to his duties as the agency's leading Criminal Interdiction Expert, Sheriff Lewis remains a CERTIFIED INSTRUCTOR through the Maryland Police Training Commission, and a certified MASTER INSTRUCTOR through the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration. Sheriff Lewis was directly responsible for the training and educating of all Maryland State Police personnel in the Criminal Interdiction Venue.

Elected November 2006, and now serving his third consecutive four-year term, Sheriff Lewis has worked tirelessly to transform the Wicomico County Sheriff's Office into one of superior service to our citizens, and one of fear to the criminals who prey on an innocent society.

During his 31 years of law enforcement experience, Sheriff Lewis has led the nation in cocaine and heroin seizures, as well as the seizures of millions of dollars in U.S. Currency found concealed within elaborately-constructed false compartments in motor-vehicles found traveling along U.S. Rt. 13 through Wicomico County. He pioneered the Drug Interdiction Program along Maryland's notorious U.S. Rt. 13 corridor, coordinating many multi-jurisdictional investigations following the seizures of large amounts of illegal contraband.

Sheriff Lewis has trained tens of thousands of law enforcement officers extensively throughout the United States and as well as other parts of the world including: Australia, Germany, Russia, and the West Indies. Sheriff Lewis has been judicially recognized by the federal and state courts of this country as an EXPERT in the areas of Highway Interdiction, Hidden Compartments and Drug Valuation.

A family man and life-long Wicomico County resident, Mike and his wife Denise live in Salisbury. Their son, Adam is a chemistry teacher at Salisbury Christian School, and their daughter Ally is in her junior year of college at Salisbury University.

ALABAMA SHERIFFS ASSOCIATION
2019 SUMMER TRAINING CONFERENCE

DEPUTY TRAINING

WEDNESDAY - JULY 10, 2019

8:00 AM - 5:00 PM

PERDIDO BEACH RESORT
27200 PERDIDO BEACH BOULEVARD
ORANGE BEACH, AL 36561
251.981.9811

INTERDICTION

Four out of five serious crimes in the United States involve transportation. It is critical that every officer be prepared for who they might meet and what they might find on every traffic stop.

Sheriff Lewis will cover topics including:

- Observing a Violation
- Criminally Profiling vs. Racial Profiling
- Tending to Enforcement Action
- Searching the Vehicle
- Officer Safety
- Preparing for Prosecution

Who should attend this training?

Deputies whose responsibilities include observing traffic and conducting traffic stops, drugs interdiction, etc.